tary movements in both Germany and France, and it is assumed both armies are concentrating for decisive battles. No hint as to when they will come into contact has been given.
Liege, Belgium, was again attacked by German troops last night, but was still holding out. The report of a German reverse was denied in a dispatch from Berlin.
The German cruisers Goeben and Breslau, obliged owing to Italian neutrality to leave San Salvatore, have gone out to meet the British fleet. The commanders are said to have handed their wills to the German consul before departure.
A London newspaper report says the German crown prince has been seriously injured by an unidentified assailant.
A Finn sea captain on arriving at Stockholm reported the Russian navy bottled up at Helsingfors and the Russian ports of Libau and Revel to be burning after an attack by German vessels. No confirmation.
Many German merchant vessels were brought into English ports today by British cruisers. The Holland Lloyd steamer Tuanitia, with $2,500,000 from South America for the Deutsche bank in London, was also brought in French warships and captured several German merchant ships.
The French premier appealed to the women of France to gather the wheat and wine crops.
Tokio reports the German squadron at Tsing-Tau, China, hemmed in by British war vessels.
The British tank steamer San Fernando is reported destroyed by a mine off Cuxhaven, Germany, and the British steamer Craigforth was beached near Constantinople after contact with a mine.
Stories of discourtesy in Germany to the dowager empress of Russia are declared false by the German foreign office.

OFFICIAL ACCOUNT OF RIOTS IN BERLIN
Berlin, Aug. 7, via London, 11:18 a. m.—The official account of the attack on the British embassy by the Berlin populace, for which the German emperor apologized to the British ambassador, is as follows:
"The Berlin public first confined its demonstration to the singing of patriotic songs and to shouting at various persons who were making outrageous gestures from the windows of the embassy. Some sand was thrown on the crowd, which thereupon tore up the mosaic pavements on the sidewalk and bombarded the windows. The police immediately cleared the street."
Mr. Churchill announced that the British government had decided to establish a press bureau presided over by Frederick E. Smith, a member of parliament, and from this bureau to be issued a steady supply of trustworthy information from both the admiralty and war office, without, however, placing in danger the naval and military interests of the country. In this way, he said, the country would be kept truthfully informed of the state of affairs.
The first lord then paid a tribute to the press for its restraint during the precautionary period when the government was without any legal means of controlling it.

RESPONSE OF ENGLAND'S CALL BREAKS ALL RECORDS
London, Aug. 7—11:15 p. m.—The response to Field Marshal Earl Kitchener's appeal for recruits for the British army surpasses anything in the memory of British military men. Huge crowds of all ages and all stations of life, silk hatted men and poorly clothed laborers, stood in long lines all day in front of the recruiting stations, awaiting their turn to go before the medical officers.
Dr. Hans Plehn, correspondent of the German Telegraphic News agency, who had been placed under arrest, was released today after he had satisfied the police that he was not a spy. He had declined to return to Germany.
A dispatch from Copenhagen states that the Celtic sailed from there today for New York, after embarking 230 passengers who were glad to be allowed to occupy the steerage.
With the object of co-ordinating the system of giving assistance to traveling Americans and restoring order among the somewhat chaotic conditions arising out of the multiplicity of committees, an authoritative committee of Americans resident in London was formed today under official auspices. Walter Times Pusey, the American ambassador, has been appointed honorary chairman and Con-

ADmiralty KNOWS OF NO SERIOUS FIGHTING
The first lord said:
"Apart from the loss of the small British cruiser Amphion and the German mine layer Koenigin Louise there has been no other fighting and loss so far as we are aware.
"On Wednesday a flotilla of torpedo boat destroyers patrolling the
